Hi All,

Have we decided on a call time yet?

Thanks!

I'm good with any time. I think we were waiting to hear if Chris could meet Saturday morning.

I'm good for Saturday morning, pretty much whenever (though after 10 CST would be kind).

10 CST or later works for me. Let me know what y'all decide. I'll have the coffee ready.

So how about 10:30 CST?

Sounds good, I will set it up. I checked on Skype and it is possible to record, but since I will be at an airshow I am not quite sure of my online access. I will set it up through freeconference.com if that is OK with you all? If it is a problem, just let me know.

Sounds good. Do we all sign up for freeconference accounts or something?

You should have received an invitation last night via email for the call. It provides the call in number and conference number.

Did, and have accepted. Thanks for setting it up. This will be fun.

Wicked. This'll be fun.

So we just need to settled on what questions we want to answer. I sent a couple suggestions out the other day. See what you think and add your own.
